

An admin logs in and creates a new account for a volunteer, which is added to the user list. The admin checks which shelters are open in the zip codes hit by the hurricane. When the admin logs out, everything is saved.

